BOTTLENECKS TO PRODUCTION SEEN

Strikes, OPA Control And Wasteful Government Spending Cited By Manufacturers' Leader

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Ira Mosher, chairman of the National Association of Manufacturers, said today that "It is suicide for this nation to allow its economic future to be bottled around as a political football any longer."

Mosher told 2,000 industrial leaders at the 31st annual meeting of the Associated Industrial of Massachusetts. "The time has come for the American people to apply the same yardstick of honesty and integrity to their representatives in government that they do to businessmen."

He asserted that "The bureaucrats refused to relax prices on meat until the fear of losing the November elections panicked the politicians."

Biggest Inflation Factor
Mosher said the 18¢ cents an hour raise sponsored by the administration at Washington was "the biggest single inflation factor pumped into the national economy and the president must take full responsibility for it."

Mosher listed strikes, OPA controls and wasteful government spending as the three big bottlenecks to postwar production and prosperity.

He pointed to a "small group of labor leaders, using the workers of this country as their own private armies," as having "the power to stop our whole economy dead in its tracks."

He called for a national labor policy which would equalize the responsibilities and privileges of labor and management under the law; the elimination of OPA bureaucratic control on wages and prices; and for a balanced budget with a plan to begin retirement of the national debt.

COAL ASSOCIATION SEES DEMAND AS CHALLENGE TO U. S.

Trace the steps once taken without great danger to the dignity of government.

Remain Silent
Meantime, both Lewis and government officials remained silent since their last exchange of letters in which the union leader announced that the miners would consider their present contract "void" if the government fails to grant the Nov. 1 negotiating parley.

Interior department spokesmen said merely that Navy Capt. N. H. Collison, boss of the coal mines administration, was communicating with Interior Secretary J. A. Krug, who is on a southwestern tour. Beyond that, they declined comment. Both Collison and Krug have agreed to "meet" with Lewis "at any time," but they bluntly declined to negotiate on the subject of higher wages and shorter hours for the miners. The two officials take the position that the contract negotiated by the government with Lewis last summer runs for the period of federal possession of the mines and is not renewable.

Alternative Suggestion
As an alternative, the government suggested that Lewis meet with the soft coal operators and attempt to negotiate an agreement which would permit speedy release of the industry from federal control. However, industry representatives said there appeared to be little chance of such a meeting now and expressed the opinion that "Lewis doesn't want to make a contract at the moment with the operators."

The National Coal association termed Lewis' demand "an ultimatum" to the government and said it would be "interesting to see what steps the government takes to protect the people from a coal shortage now that the government occupies the place of mine manager."

GLASSES GET AROUND
PONTIAC, Mich.—(INS)—O. J. Bequette, retired motor businessman, has received the binoculars he loaned the U. S. Navy during the war. The glasses are now inscribed with the Navy insignia—and the names of all men who used them during the war, included is the name of Admiral King and a number of officers of lesser rank.

AMERICAN MENU VIRTUALLY FREED OF PRICE CONTROL

move virtually all other food price curbs, OPA declared that "it was not feasible or practicable" to retain ceilings on remaining goods after meat and edible fats and oils were decontrolled.

Sugar Control Remains
Controls on sugar, rice and syrups are expected to be retained for some time in view of the critical shortages of these products, OPA said.

The following foods and beverages were exempted from price control last midnight:

Flour, bread, bakery products, all fish, bananas, oranges, canned pineapple and pineapple juice, tomatoes and tomato products, breakfast cereals, macaroni, spaghetti, noodle products, beverage powders, mixed vegetable juices, jams and jellies, dried beans and peas, tea, cocoa, gelatin deserts, candy, soft drinks, whiskey and beer, and all imported foods.

Affected By Today's Action

Chief items decontrolled by OPA's follow up action today are:

All cosmetics, except soap; bicycle tires; sanitary napkins and tampons; rubber drug sundries such as hot water bottles, ice bags, atomizers, syringes, hot supplies and rubber gloves; hardwood logs produced in the Pacific Northwest; stove polish; and some automobile parts such as battery trays, license plate fasteners and heel rests for accelerator pedals.

As the food ceilings went off, OPA turned its attention to the removal of controls from items in other fields. The agency is expected to lift controls from hundreds of minor items within the next two weeks.

national issues, had offered a toast to "the peoples of our world—one world."

Molotov had replied, through his interpreter, with the suggestion to the American delegation that they had crossed the Atlantic together, and "now we should swim together."

Greet 500 Delegates

The chief executive and Mrs. Truman had stood in a receiving line on the starlight roof of the Waldorf-Astoria to personally shake hands with the 500-odd delegates, and see to it that all had their fill of cocktails, champagne, Scotch and Rye, and lavish buffet.

Beginning today, however, the world act promised to revert to its familiar theme of east versus west.

Coming up, after a few minor and inconsequential matters, were such major problems as revision of the United Nations charter to do away with the veto power; creation and financing of a new international relief organization; and establishment of trusteeships over former enemy territory.

Many Problems

Mexico, through Minister Francisco Castillo-Najera, was prepared to force a discussion of the possible "guarantining" of Franco Spain, Soviet Russia, Poland and France were certain to lend a helping hand.

Moscow wants to know how many troops and ships the United States and Great Britain have in "non-enemy territory."

Another debate will revolve around the permanent site of the various United Nations organizations. The U. N. headquarters committee, headed by Sir Angus Fletcher, still holds to one of the five locations in Westchester county, N. Y., where the citizens are openly hostile. New York City has offered what amounts to a $27,000,000 gift to get the world organization to settle down on Flushing Meadows. San Francisco is about to put in a new bid. Russia, it was understood, is getting set to demand that U. N. take over the old League of Nations property in Geneva.

Ex-Soldier Asks For His Freedom

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Joseph Spine, 29, of McKees Rocks, Pa., regretted the "blind date for marriage" he had in San Francisco on Dec. 31, 1945, he told Judge Henry Ellenbogen today.

MANY ATTEND NAVAL SERVICES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The Navy Civilian Corps said today that 32,603,684 persons attended 497,577 naval civilian services in 1945.

In addition to holding regular services, Navy chaplains married 12,501 couples, conducted 14,951 funeral services and baptized 15,088 infants.

Plastic Wings Tried On Planes

WRIGHT FIELD, Dayton, O., Oct. 24.—(INS)—Plastics have won new wings.

The Army Air Forces reported today that an experimental glass fiber aircraft wing has passed successfully all strength requirements in a test at Wright field. The new wing withstood 105 per cent of the required design load without buckling or wrinkling.

The basic material for the wing was 55 per cent glass fibers and 45 per cent resin, the AAF reported. The successful tests climaxed experiments begun back in 1941.

Previously, an all-glass fiber fuselage tested 50 per cent stronger on a strength-weight basis than the standard metal plane body, and since has passed thousands of air hours in test flights.

What Forces Are Against The Republican Ticket?

Certainly everybody is not for the Republican candidates in this election. The Communists are against them, the PAC is against them, the Cash and Carry Democrats are against them. But more and more, thinking Democrats are turning to the Republican party as the bulwark against wild eyed radicalism, starchy eyed theorists, and wasteful bunglers.

Who are they? Here is just a few of them. Arthur H. Colegrove, Secretary of Property and Supplies in the cabinet of Democratic Governor George H. Earle. Roy Zimmerman, former secretary of the Pennsylvania Democratic Party. Hon. James A. Wright, former Democratic Congressman from Allegheny County.

These men are real Democrats but they are not New Dealers, they are not willing to turn over the government to parlor pinks, or crackpot theorists. That's why they are supporting the Republican ticket this year.

DICKEY GIBSON CHURCH WEDDING

An open church candlelight wedding in the First U. P. church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock solemnized the marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Dickey, daughter of Mrs. Roy Dickey, of Katherine street, and Lester D. Gibson, son of Mrs. Rebecca Gibson, of Ridgeway avenue, Highland Heights.

Dr. S. E. Irvine officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of an assemblage of friends and relatives that filled the church. Palms and ferns banked the altar with lighted candles in branched candelabra at either side.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Robert S. Dickey, wore a white crepe gown of her own design, fashioned with high neckline, long sleeves and peplum. Her fingertip veil fell from a cap of lace and crepe. She carried a white Bible with an orchid marker and wore a double strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Mrs. George Sloan, sister of the groom, as maid of honor wore a gown of yellow satin and net with matching cap and headpiece and carried an arm bouquet of orange and gold mums. Her niece, Miss Judy Crawford, little flower girl, wore pink net and carried pink and white mums.

Her long veil fell from a cap of French lace trimmed with orange blossoms, and she carried calla lilies and baby mums, centered with an orchid. She wore a gold cross, a gift from the bridegroom, as her only jewelry.

Miss Angeline Padula, sister of the bride as maid of honor, wore a pink marquisette gown over tulle, matching headpiece, and carried orchid mums and roses. Bridesmaids Martha Alice and Nancy Micco wore gowns of pastel shades, matching headpiece, and carried white carnations and roses.

Mrs. Micco is a graduate of June class of 1940, and is employed at Shenango Pottery. Mr. Micco attended Union High, and served 25 months in the air force, 24 months in the Pacific area.

Upon return from their wedding trip to Erie, Buffalo and Canada, they will reside at 410 Hawthorne street.

Out of town guests were Vito Marguerite of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rotunno, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Arzico, Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Arzico, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Micco, Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Micco, Mr. and Mrs. Domenick Micco, Mr. and Mrs. James Micco and Mrs. Rose Micco, all of Hillsville; Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Semanari and Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Pencello of Youngstown, O.

LEEPER HOOVER EVENING WEDDING

Miss Wilma Alma Leeper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Leeper, of Edinburg, became the bride of Eugene Guyon Hoover, son of Mrs. Charles E. Hoover, also of Edinburg, October 18 at a ceremony performed at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Edinburg Methodist church.

Rev. Jack P. Boyd officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, en train, the yoke of the gown embroidered with seed pearls. Her short veil fell from a seed pearl coronet and she carried white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Her sister, Miss Joann Leeper, as maid of honor, wore pink organza and carried pink and white mums. Janet Kildoe was train bearer.

James Book was his cousin's best man and ushers were Frank Kuhn, Donald Leeper and Homer Phenice. Soloist was Miss Donna Parks who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," and pianist was Miss Norrene Calkins.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 45 guests at the home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds left by automobile on a wedding trip to Virginia and on their return will live in Edinburg.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hoover are graduates of Union high school. She is office assistant to Dr. T. J. Fletcher and he is employed in the electrical department of the Pittsburgh Limestone Corp. plant.

Mr. Hoover was discharged in March from the U.S.N.R. after three years' anti-submarine duty. He spent 27 months aboard an escort vessel in the Pacific theater.

Airline Safety

These past few weeks have been tragic ones for commercial aviation. There have been numerous reports of fresh crashes with heavy loss of life, many of them on transoceanic routes. In their wake comes a feeling that drastic measures may be needed to restore the enviable safety record that aviation was compiling before the war.

It is not difficult to find a plausible explanation for the recent sharp increase in fatal accidents. The volume of air traffic has been zooming upward since the end of the war. Many more planes are in service flying over longer and more hazardous routes than in the past. The advent of fall weather, always a difficult and often a treacherous season for flight, may also have played a part in the sudden increase in crashes.

But it is not enough to explain why accidents are happening more frequently or to investigate the causes. Both the industry and federal air authorities must redouble their efforts in behalf of safety. What has been done is obviously not enough to protect passengers from the hazards of air transport.

American aviation has moved promptly in the past to tighten up its safety requirements when the records of accidents have shown that something was at fault. Commercial airlines and the CAA should move vigorously to remove the causes of the series of crashes which have marred aviation's record this fall.

Remaking Japan

Japan's new constitution, guaranteeing freedom and abolishing feudalistic practices, has finally passed both branches of the diet. It will be promulgated in an imperial ordinance November 7 and will become effective six months later.

The new constitution is a formidable document. It not only renounces war but even promises not to create an army or navy. The people would be sovereign. The emperor is undefined, reduced and circumscribed. There is an excellent bill of rights. The document represents a compromise between theories of representative government. The lower house of the diet will be the real power and the premier and the majority of his cabinet must be members of the diet. A supreme court on the model of the United States tribunal is set up, but with powers largely undefined.

The constitution, given lip service and overwhelming votes in the present diet, is largely a prefabricated document imposed from the occupation headquarters of General MacArthur. Japan this is getting constitutional reform, in effect, by fiat. It is the form, probably, not the feeling of republicanism, that has been brought to the people, brought to them under mandate by Japanese leaders who are only a shade less totalitarian than the wartime junta.

Its directives are none, but now the task of General MacArthur is to strive for an actual breaking through of liberal sentiment to the people. In the past constitutions have meant little in Japan. This one also will mean little until the national will and electorate are transformed in accordance to its principles. That can not be accomplished by fiat.

Jobs In September

Employment continued to rise during September, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The number of non-farm jobs passed the 40,000,000 mark for the first time since December, 1944, increasing by 266,000 as compared with August. "Unemployment" remained at approximately 2,000,000, considered the lowest point it can possibly reach.

The figures are interesting because they imply that the reconversion process, judged by the employment criterion, has been practically completed. At the wartime peak 700,000 more workers were employed than during September, but that record was less than 2 per cent higher than the September figure. The shift from war jobs to peace jobs has been accomplished to all intents and purposes.

Yet the picture would have been even brighter if there had been no strikes. The shipping stoppage clogged up the movement of freight and thousands of men out of work who would otherwise have been employed. Then there were materials shortages, caused by earlier strikes, that prevented many plants from achieving maximum production.

These factors are still to be reckoned with. In fact, lack of materials continues to cause lay-offs. Still, October should compare favorably with September, November could be better still, if there are no major strikes.

New Hollywood Absurdity

One expects absurdities to come from Hollywood, for something in the atmosphere there seems to breed them, but few have reached the heights of a jurisdictional labor dispute which is interfering with operation of film studios.

This lush pasture for made work has not been overlooked, and arbitrators have long had their hands full in deciding what union should have which job. Members of one union could move a piano, but the job of shifting a vase of flowers atop the instrument was in another's territory. Fine distinctions extend into costuming as well and when a stage setting calls for a bar, there's a vital point in what kind of bar it is. If it is fast to the wall, erection is up to the carpenters. If it is not so anchored, the property men handle it.

A dispute over construction of stage settings precipitated the strike, which has been going on for three weeks. Now technicians who process film have refused to cross picket lines, further hamstringing production. After some of the absurdities perpetrated in the films, this jurisdictional row may be a bit of self-inflicted justice. Hollywood more or less asked for it.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Large Scale Social Change In California

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—Beneath the hurried, rushing surface, social change is occurring in this very special part of America at a rate that must be at least geometric. Bubbles like red-hot lava just under the crust, it makes the content of the political campaign sound thin and irrelevant.

First and foremost, of course, is the population increase. Since 1940, a city the size of St. Louis has been added, numerically speaking, to the Los Angeles area.

What is more, the growth is continuing. It is estimated that, for every person leaving the area, four are coming to live in the climate which has been so highly publicized. They tell you quite calmly that in another five years Southern California will have a population of 10,000,000. The present total for the entire state is put at 9,600,000.

Compels Social Change
Even if no other forces were at work, this extraordinary growth would compel social change on a wholesale scale. No one seems to want to face that fact. Los Angeles recently turned down a $44,000,000 bond issue that would have provided some of the essential facilities badly needed.

In this moment of high prosperity, the problems are obscured. As elsewhere, the force of unprecedented wartime spending is still predominant. Until very recently, it was difficult or impossible to hire any kind of worker, skilled or unskilled, but how all the newcomers will earn their living when the impetus of government billions for war finally ends is a question in many minds.

The peak of wartime employment has in many industries long since been reduced to a modest peacetime plateau.

The Douglas Aircraft Corporation had a payroll of 100,000 in California alone in the fall of 1943. It fell off from that high level because the company could not obtain essential workers in the fiercely competitive labor market. Today the Douglas payroll in California is about 25,000. That may expand a little but not more than a few thousand.

It is fairly clear that the aircraft industry will not provide mass employment.

It will take something else, something more nearly adapted to the peacetime pattern of living. A sizable tornado named Henry J. Kaiser has a burning desire to supply that something.

Decisions Are Political
But the ultimate decisions are political. During the war, Kaiser built a steel plant at Fontana, 60 miles from Los Angeles, with money borrowed from the government. It was the first plant of its kind in this part of the world.

Fontana has capacity orders well into 1946. At present high prices, the plant can break even and still pay back the government at a fixed annual rate, but Kaiser is looking ahead to the time when operation will not be capacity and when prices will drop. He wants to get his government loan scaled down, and one of his chief arguments is the fact that the United States Steel Company was able to buy a government-owned steel plant at Geneva, Utah, for 30 cents on the dollar. That, says Kaiser, gives his nearest competitor an unfair advantage.

He and his two sons, Edgar and Henry Jr., are working like beavers. They have acquired from the War Assets Administration part of the Douglas plant at Long Beach and they have built into it equipment to manufacture their new motor cars.

With Fontana in operation, together with a new sheet steel mill that the Kaisers want to build, you get a picture of an industrial complex such as this region has never known before.

But, to repeat, the decisions are political. This complex would rival the industrial complex of Pittsburgh and Detroit. It would cut the transportation railroads out of a lot of business.

That is one reason why the cry of "government favoritism" is being raised to checkmate Kaiser. Just as though government favors—land grants to the railroads, for example—have not underwritten a large share of American enterprise.

The people will be here. This is a fact no one can look around. If they are not on a private payroll, then they are on a government dole.

BACK BONE
Back bone is supposed to be very desirable. When a person has a back bone he is considered to be in pretty bad shape.

The bones are very important parts of the body. It is desirable to keep them in good condition. Young children need food which provides material for bone building. Milk is our main source of supply for these materials.

It does not seem to make much difference in what form the milk is taken.

Cheese, buttermilk, custards and ice cream are a few of the many forms in which milk may be used. When used in cooking and baking it does just as much good.

The minerals which it contains are just the stuff to make good bones. Children need lots of milk or old people should have some too.

The United States is paying 49.9 per cent of the expenses of the United Nations and hopes for a similar percentage of success.

The Soviet States will contribute six per cent to expenses and considerably more to debate.

But we have been incredibly lucky in world affairs. Not only are we permitted to spend more than anybody else on World Wars but we are allowed to pick up the tab for world peace.

No other dopes can make that claim. But it can't be all luck. It must be intelligent planning that keeps us grabbing for the checks while others fumble for lead fasts in their briefcases.

Fortunately so far no glib reactionaries have gotten their hands on the till to lock the drawer and hide the key.

LOOKING AT LIFE
By ERICH BRANDEIS

I am a great admirer of James F. Byrnes, our Secretary of State. But I did not like one part of the speech he recently made in Paris.

This is the part I did not like: "We want to give the common men and women in this world a new chance to live and enjoy the blessings of peace and freedom. We want the common men and women of this world to share in the rising standards of life which science makes possible in a free, peaceful and friendly world."

The sentiment is fine, and I agree completely. Of course we want higher standards of living and peace and freedom.

But who is this "common man" and that "common woman"? Whenever I hear someone talk about the common man I feel that he considers himself better than the "common man," and there seems to be a bit of condescension in his attitude.

We are all common men and common women. We are all born and grow up and die.

That's common to all of us. Everything else is just a by-product, accidental, and of no great importance.

Some people achieve more power, more fame, more success than others. But with all their talents and their money, all their trappings, they are all subject to the laws of nature and not one of us can escape the ultimate, common destiny.

Some of these "common" men and women have lacked the opportunity to achieve greatness. All others it is lack of health, lack of opportunity, lack of shrewdness, lack of luck.

So please let me remember that we are all common human beings and that some of us have uncommon equipment.

I wish Jimmy Byrnes had left out the word "common" in his speech. Copyright, 1946, King Features Syndicate.

Happy Birthday to you... happy birthday to you... The owners Mr. and Mrs. Sam Townsend... the officers and employees of station WKST. Eight years ago the station was born here in New Castle and today it has grown to be a definite asset to the community...

Did you ever hear "Mr. District Attorney"? It's a very interesting program presented each Wednesday... many times while hearing the program we have entertained the thought that concerned our own District Attorney... wonder just how many District Attorneys throughout the land listen to the experiences of "The Chief"? If they do listen... what is their reaction?

To our way of reasoning... no District Attorney works like the ones in stories or movies. Things just don't happen so smoothly or quickly... basically perhaps the stories are true... but smooth writers... Oh up the printing press... That seems to be the slogan! make the presented story ship down like wine.

That brings to mind war stories... to win an award for bravery it was necessary to have the act presented in black and white. Writers were handed down. A man went out... knocked out two or three machine gun nests... captured several enemy... or maybe they up a bridge while under direct fire from the enemy... It was the civilian writers job to write the story in smooth language... gathering information from actual eye witnesses. It worked fine during the actual war periods... Award were made honestly... then the war ended... and it was discovered that Bronze and Silver Stars counted five points each.

Everyone wanted an award... and many received them. You tell a story about me and I'll tell one about you was the main type of the story. Some of the most startling stories came from that source. Most all were signed and sworn to by Company officers. It did cheapen the award made to the man who actually did a good job.

The Parent Problem

By GARY C. MYERS, Ph. D.

CHILDREN WHO FEAR THE DARK

Some parents, in their zeal not to pamper the young child, will go too far in their efforts to harden him to going to sleep in the dark. Whereas it is rare that a child under 20 months evinces fear of the dark, some children from two to six, even older, sustain a lot of needless suffering from this fear.

A parent should have no hesitations at leaving the young child's door ajar with a dim light in the hall or next room. In addition, it might be well, in the younger indicates fear of dark, for the parent to pass by his door occasionally or enter his room pretending to be on an errand. This should not, however, be confused with the bad practice of going to his bedside repeatedly at his beck and call.

One of our children who had never objected to being left at bedtime in a dark room told his mother at the age of five that X, a playmate, told him a monkey had been coming into X's bedroom at night.

Door Ajar
"Won't you please leave my door open and the light on outside it tonight?" he asked. To which his mother replied in a matter-of-fact way, "Of course, then you might be able to see the monkey."

The next evening he gave a vivid account of just what that monkey looked like and how he acted. On this child's request, his door was left ajar each night for several weeks. Soon the monkey was no longer heard about.

Another of our children, when about ten, requested one night that the bedroom door be left open. This request was granted without question. In both the bedroom door was closed without objection after a few weeks. My bulletin "Fears" may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 335 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

In the following letter you will observe an account of how a mother tried to deal with a similar matter in a younger two years old.

"Three nights ago a problem arose which had me stumped. Instead of going down and going right off to sleep when put to bed as he had always done, he started to cry. I went in once since it was so unusual for him to cry in bed. Satisfying myself that nothing was wrong I went out and let him scream. He continued for two and one-half hours. I finally went in to him. He stopped then but started again when I left and finally cried again when I went back.

"Last night the same problem was repeated over again. But after he cried again for two hours, I left the door to his room open at his request so that he could see the light from the rest of the house. This quieted him and he went to sleep."

"Tonight he tried when I said good night and closed his door. I opened his door and he said he was afraid. I left the door open and he slept. He didn't cry at all and fell asleep in five minutes."

We can see, as this mother no doubt discovered for herself, that she had not given undue weight to requiring that little child to be in the dark at bedtime. She would have saved herself and him from some needless suffering. But we can be sure she was using her best judgment and we must admire her for having the courage to carry through her plans, and then the good sense to revise those plans once she found them wrong.

Generally it is wise to let the young child cry it out at bedtime rather than to rock, rock him or take him into bed with a parent. It is well to leave the child's door ajar with a dim light on outside the door and to remain in easy hearing distance to make sure the struggling youngster doesn't suffocate.

Good Taste

IMPORTANCE OF MANNERS
What do you consider the most important social assets? When I say "social" I am not referring to society as called, but rather to being well-bred and having innumerable friends.

Answer: We should always so conduct ourselves both at home and in public that our manners are impeccable. And our manners should be based upon respect not only for ourselves but for others. We therefore should say nothing and do nothing that might offend others. We should not consciously hurt anyone's feelings, crush anyone's ancestry, home, background, clothes—no matter how tempted we may be to do so.

People who gain popularity, who have a surfeit of friends and invitations are invariably mindful of the feelings of others and they say complimentary things instead of giving us a list of the most essential "musts" on our list of social assets. To display uncontrolled emotion in public is in the worst possible taste. Well-bred people never show, before strangers, sorrow, anger or even affection—no matter how trying the conditions.

If you don't believe me, just look around whenever there is such a display in a public place, and see for yourself the kind of people who violate this part of the social code. It just isn't done.

Questions: I have been engaged for two weeks and my parents have not yet met my fiancée's parents. Since my fiancée is in the service and cannot, therefore, bring her parents to visit mine and they have not yet done so, should I bring mine to meet them? If not, how should the situation be handled?

Answer: The man's parents should call as soon as possible after the announcement of the engagement, on his fiancée and her parents. Since this has not been done in your case, have your mother tell his mother and invite his parents to visit.

New "Unknown Soldier" Will Go To Arlington
World War II Victim To Rest Beside Other Guards Volunteer For 24-Hour Watch

(Special to Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Another "Unknown Soldier," selected from the unidentified dead of World War II will be placed to final rest beside the Unknown Soldier of World War I in the national shrine at Arlington National Cemetery.

This time, the unknown defender of his country may not be a soldier, but a sailor, marine or coast guard. All four services will be represented in the final choosing, but no one will ever know who he is, or in which branch of service he fought.

According to present plans, this unknown member of the armed forces will be brought back to this country from some foreign battlefield.

A bill providing for the return of an unknown serviceman was passed in Congress on June 14, 1946, and has been signed by President Truman. Details as to how the unknown serviceman will be chosen are to be worked out by the War Department.

Selection of the Unknown Soldier of World War I was one of the most dramatic incidents in military history. Few men have had greater honors paid them in death.

In October, 1921, the war department sent instructions for the examination of one unidentified body at each of the four American military cemeteries in France, where men were buried after they had fallen on the four major fronts of World War I.

Three Quartermaster officers and one hospital officer were sent to each of these cemeteries under sealed orders, which when opened instructed them to select the body of one soldier. Since this soldier was identified by number only, the orders contained a number picked at random. Alternate numbers were provided in the event that if an exhumed body contained the slightest identification, it could be reported and a second one selected.

Once the four bodies were exhumed, all records of their numbers, the place in which they were buried and the cemeteries from which they came were destroyed.

The four bodies, in steel caskets, were taken to Gladesville, Maine and placed in a small room in the city hall. Thousands of grateful French visited the city hall and paid tribute to the four men, one of whom would be selected to represent all of the unknown American dead of World War I.

The Unknown Soldier was brought to the United States aboard the Battleship of Admiral Dewey, the USS Maryland.

Fraternization Policy Winning German Friends

Officer Claims Policy In German
Zone To Teach People
True Democracy

ERIE, Pa.—(IN.)—Fraternization with the German population is making a success of the United States' occupational objectives in Germany, according to Lt. Col. Bertram H. Schaffner, of Erie.

Dr. Schaffner, who served five and a half years with the army in home from the American occupation zone.

He pointed out that the policy of fraternization, which was recently amended from a policy of discouragement of friendliness, is a direct reversal of the army's first relationship with the Germans.

He said: "It is now officially encouraged to have American soldiers get together with German youths to teach sports and hold political discussions."

He said American publications in the occupation zone are pressing a campaign for closer relations with the former enemy. He said:

"This is the thing which will assure us success in teaching Germany the true value of democracy."

Dr. Schaffner declared that contrary to reports that the youth of Germany is leading resistance movements, "there is hope for democracy in the youth of Germany."

He explained:
Win Friendship
"We are out to win the friendship of the Germans... we can't teach them by staying away from them."

However, Dr. Schaffner said, there can be little success in democracy in Germany as long as its youth is taught blind obedience to the father of the family, who is in absolute power.

Dr. Schaffner served as psychiatric examiner of the information control division, and later was with the American staff prosecuting the Nuremberg trials.

STUDY PROJECTS

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica.—(INS.)—With the object of studying possibilities of financing a vast construction project recently proposed by American contractor Sam Rosoff, known as "Subway Sam", a special representative of the Export-Import Bank, Mr. Earl Roche, has arrived to investigate the proposition. The Rosoff project embodies the construction of highways, terminating unfinished government buildings, construction of a new international airport, enlargement of shipping wharves at the Pacific coast port of Puntarenas and improvements to the government owned Pacific Railroad.

For working rags, sodium fluoride is now being recommended.

Musical Pillows Latest Invention

NEW YORK.—(INS.)—Musical pillows—stuffed with radio—are science's latest contribution to harmony in the boudoir.

Step by step electrical engineers have been filling in the pitfalls of marriage with such annoyance eliminators as electric blankets, spot lighting—and now musical pillows "for individual listening."

The pillow speaker is the size of a silent butler and about the same shape. It plugs into a bedside radio and can be slipped into the pillow case with no one the wiser.

It's made by Telex, makers of hearing aids, and sells for $12.60.

The manufacturer guarantees that it's shockproof but won't say the same about the programs that come out of it.

The musical pillow made its debut in Army hospitals, and only recently has been offered for home use. An airline has tested it on some of its runs and is planning to pass out melodic pillows to passengers on trans-oceanic hops.

AMBITION REALIZED

DETROIT.—(INS.)—Policeman Barney Selesky realized a life-long ambition on the day he signed out on retirement pension.

That night he asked his wife to wind and set the alarm clock as usual and then went to bed. When the bell rang the next morning at six, ex-policeman Selesky arose, picked up the clanking clock, and looked it through the window glass and all. Then he went back to sleep.

Chateau For Rent; Only $5,830 Month

ANTIBES.—(INS.)—The 24 servants at the Chateau de la Croix, the Riviera residence of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, are feverishly packing their employers' trunks and are sending them to the Hotel Ritz in Paris as the lease of the chateau expired on October first.

The royal couple has definitely decided to give up their estate at the Cap d'Antibes, sources close to the duke asserted. He cannot afford to spend $5,830.33 every month for the upkeep of this luxurious home. In fact, these sources claimed, the only pay the duke is getting at the present time is that of a field marshal in the British army, about $15,000 a year.

TYPEWRITER THIEF

DETROIT.—(INS.)—The spectacle of a group of feminine faculty members pursuing a man carrying a typewriter precluded the opening of Detroit's fashionable Liget School this fall.

The teachers discerned through inventory that ten typewriters had vanished from the building. Suddenly one of them shrieked and pointed. The others looked just in time to see a figure dash behind a campus bush with a typewriter in his arms.

The group surrendered dignity for the cause. They gave chase and followed the intruder several blocks where he disappeared into a house. The pursuers surrounded the house, and called for police aid.

Churchill Will Enter Libel Suit

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—A London law firm disclosed today that upon instructions from Winston Churchill—it will sue Author Louis Adamic and his publishers for libel in connection with several passages in his recent book "Dinner at the White House".

The firm has requested an injunction against circulation of the book, which has already been shown to a number of members of parliament. The publishers were Harpers Brothers of New York and London. Adamic's book was based on the events that occurred one evening several years ago when he had dinner with the late President Roosevelt and Churchill at the White House in Washington.

Actinium, the world's rarest metal, is said to be much more powerful than radium and lasts 20 times as long. The metal is valued at $1,000,000 an ounce.

Lutheran Churches Will Unite Sunday

Congregations To Observe Lutheran Reformation Anniversary At St. John's Church

Members of the United Lutheran congregations of New Castle will assemble Sunday evening, October 27, at 8 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran church for a service in observance of the 429th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation.

Although the actual festival day is October 31, it has become customary to anticipate the day by keeping the Sunday nearest it as Reformation Sunday. Vespers will be read by Rev. A. E. Simon, pastor of St. John's church and Rev. O. J. Warnath, S. T. M., minister of St. Paul's church.

Rev. Louis G. Golder, pastor of Bethany church, will preach on the sermon theme, "Re-Formation". This will be Pastor Golder's last sermon in New Castle, as he is leaving the city next week to take up the position of service pastor in Norfolk, Va., under the direction of the National Lutheran Council.

Large Donation Day Ingathering At Almira Home

In spite of the scarcity of some foodstuffs, Almira Home received an impressive ingathering of canned goods, potatoes, apples, onions, and other staple groceries at its annual ingathering at the home Wednesday. Pumpkins, too, added to the colorful array received at the home Wednesday.

In addition a generous sum of money to be applied on the home's purchase of staple and supplementary food items was received from friends of the home by Mrs. Walter W. Braham, Donation Day chairman.

Three Small Fires Occur Over Night

Three small fires were reported here during the past 24 hours by Fire Chief James E. Thomas. Slight damage resulting in any instance. At 5:40 o'clock this morning, firemen were called to the plant of the Johnson Bronze company, where the furnace was being used to heat bronze powder.

At 7:35 p. m., Wednesday evening, a short occurred in the electric system at the home of A. White, 920 North Cedar street, and at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, firemen were called to South Mercer and East Reynolds street, when an auto owned by M. Baisel backfired through the carburetor.

Senior 'A's' Give Halloween Party

Senior High school students have their costumes ready for this evening's party in the school gymnasium, when the senior 'A' class is host to a crowd of underclassmen. Halloween decoration naturally set the pace for the party, with all the events fitting in with the theme. The feature of the evening will be the selection of "Cinderella" from among the girls masquerading at the party.

And Kilroy, the seniors insist, will also be there.

The party starts at 8 o'clock.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

so far as the economic life and activity of Germany are concerned. That is plain common sense. There can be no economic unity under the present system, for the reason that there is no common financial structure, no free interchange of commodities, not even free transportation and communication between the various zones. Under present conditions industrial Germany is largely segregated from agricultural Germany, and there is practically no commerce between the two elements. As previously noted in this column the situation is analogous to that which might prevail in this country if the United States were cut up into a dozen sectors, with no common finance and tight barriers against trade among the various sectors. The secretary serves notice on Russia, by implication, in asserting that the United States is prepared to unify economic administration with other powers; it is understood that such unification already is in prospect with the British, regardless of Russian action. He also made it plain that we favor the turning over to France of the Saar basin, while supporting German retention of the Ruhr region. In view of this declaration, the probabilities are that the French will join with this country and Great Britain in unified economic administration.

In order to disabuse the minds of both Germans and Russians of any idea that we may be inclined to abandon our obligations, Mr. Byrnes declares unequivocally that "we will not shirk our duty; we are not withdrawing. As long as occupation force is required in Germany the Army of the United States will still be a part of the occupation force."

This sort of straight talk should help to clear the atmosphere at a time when cleaning is badly needed.

Hawk Brothers Still In Military Service

Three brothers, sons of Raymond Hawk Sr., of 311 Sycamore street, are still serving their country in the armed forces in widely scattered areas.

Donald Hawk has completed his basic training at Ft. McClelland, Alabama and is spending an eight day furlough at his home here. At the completion of his furlough, he will go to Camp Stonewall in California, for further duties.

Norman Hawk is serving in Korea with the Army as Military Policeman and has recently been promoted to the rank of corporal. Another brother, Raymond Paul Hawk, Jr., is stationed with the Marines at Paris Island, North Carolina.

TEMPLE ISRAEL SABBATH SERVICES

Friday evening Sabbath services at Temple Israel will be conducted, Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Iwan Gruen, rabbi of the congregation will speak on "The Drama of Nuernberg".

Open windows with curtains waving during a shower are likely to weaken the fabric and add spots that may be difficult to remove.

CANCER

All America and particularly those Americans who have had a member of their family or a friend stricken know what a terrible scourge the disease, cancer is.

Legislation was introduced last July in the House of Representatives authorizing a government expenditure of $160,000,000 for cancer research—research that might, in time, lead to the curbing of this dread killer as smallpox and tuberculosis have been curbed.

But No! This humane legislation was rejected by certain Congressmen who have ever placed property rights before human rights.

Yes! Defeated by only 7 votes, Louis E. Graham was one of the reactionaries who voted the legislation down, but that same week he voted again and this time he voted in the affirmative granting himself a $5000 PER YEAR WAGE INCREASE.

This man—this rubber stamp of the vested interests has thus proven anew that his only interest in America and Americans is the interest of intolerance to the heritage of the people.

Louis E. Graham has ever voted against you and yours. On Nov. 5th you have an opportunity to vote against him by voting for Sam G. Neff—a liberal, aggressive, peoples candidate.

A VOTE FOR NEFF IS A VOTE AGAINST INTOLERANCE, BIGOTRY, AND BILBOISM.

News Commentator At Nazi Executions Tells Of Experiences

Arthur Gaeth, Mutual network news commentator, one of the two men outside designated officials to witness the execution of the Nazi war criminals on Wednesday morning, October 16, gave a dramatic description of the Nuremberg trial and executions in an address before the combined service clubs of the city in The Castle, Wednesday noon. Mr. Gaeth appeared under the auspices of the New Castle Kiwanis Club. He is a fellow Kiwanian, being a member of the Salt Lake City, Utah, club.

Kenneth H. Beck, president of the New Castle Kiwanis Club, presided and congratulated WKST, Mutual network station here, which was broadcasting the address of Mr. Gaeth, the day marking the 8th anniversary of the founding of the local station. He then presented Charles Wilson, local commentator, who introduced the guest speaker.

At Mikhailovich Trial

Following the opening of the trials at Nuremberg, when public interest began to wane, Mr. Gaeth stated that he was assigned by Mutual to cover other hot spots in the European area, many of them behind the "iron curtain." He attended the trial of Mikhailovich, and other interesting events.

At the end of the trial he told about his good fortune in being one of the two correspondents chosen to attend the executions.

Since his return to the United States, he stated that he has heard many criticisms of the tribunal and its methods, and these he answered. That the trials lasted too long, he stated, that they had to be that long in order that all the facts could be presented and the Nazi leaders given a fair opportunity to defend themselves. That the decisions were made ex-post facto, that is that the acts the condemned were tried for had occurred and the law was then made to cover the acts, he stated that there had always been international laws against aggressive warfare but that no tribunal had ever been set up to try the crimes.

Would Deserve It

That the liability that the President of the United States could be hanged if the United States would engage in, and lose, a future war, Mr. Gaeth stated that if he were ever guilty of committing the crimes cused were taken from their own official files. There were 5,559 of them presented. "One could but wonder how they could be so assured as to preserve these records, which in themselves were enough to convict them," Mr. Gaeth asserted.

No Pity for Any

"After visiting Dachau, Belsen, and other places, there is no pity in my heart for any of the individuals who appeared before the tribunal," Mr. Gaeth said. "My only hope is that German courts catch up with the three who escaped, namely Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Franz Von Papen, and Hans Fritzsche, and try them for their crimes."

Col. B. C. Andrus, whom Mr. Gaeth exonerated of any blame in Goering's death, took him to see the prisoners just an hour before it was found that Goering had died at his own hand. He was the only one who seemed unperturbed about his fate. Where the others were pacing their cells in a nervous frenzy, Goering was lying on his cot, apparently sleeping contentedly. "He certainly put it over on his guards," Gaeth stated.

The speaker then recorded the actions of the Nazis as they were actually executed, all of which has been recounted before, along with their last words. His description was very vivid.

In conclusion, he stated that in his belief, justice was done at Nuremberg, that the trials will be the basis for other international criminal law, and that a big step forward has been taken in the world.

Among the guests in attendance at the meeting was Harry Hartz, international automobile racer, who was introduced to the group.

Gromyko's Party Buys Three Homes

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The housing shortage was really ended today for Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet representative to the United Nations.

Gromyko is said to have acquired for $675,000 three adjoining homes on the upper east side of Manhattan. They will be remodeled and used to house Gromyko and more important members of his delegation.

All that remains to conclude the deals, it was said, was for Gromyko to sign the contracts.

The properties are five-story structures with limestone fronts and were erected between 1900 and 1912. They have the ornate bronze fixtures, oak paneling and marble interior decorations of that period.

Adams, Jefferson, Monroe and Washington counties in Pennsylvania are named for former presidents.

ANNUAL ELECTION HELD BY COUNCIL

Lawrence County Council of the National Negro Congress held its meeting at the home of Douglas Garside, 135 Elm street.

An election of officers took place with plans laid for future programs.

On next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock another meeting will be held at the same address.

Pennsylvania Department of Schools was established in 1857.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
HARRISBURG

October 7, 1946.

Honorable Louis E. Graham
328 East End Avenue,
Beaver, Pennsylvania.

Dear Lou:

Ever since the good lunch which I had in Washington with the Pennsylvania Republican Delegation, I have felt that the Republican Congressmen on the ticket were as competent a group of men as I have seen in sometime. Ed Martin and I both are making every effort to see that your Congressmen in this campaign are given "your place in the sun", to which you are justly entitled.

I hope that the voters of the 25th Congressional District will by their vote send you to Washington to continue your good work for the benefit and protection of our country. You have my full endorsement and support.

If we bend every effort from now until election day, we will insure good government in Washington and Pennsylvania through the election of the entire Republican ticket.

Sincerely,
(Signed) JAMES H. DUFF.

BEER WAR OF LABOR UNIONS IS SPREADING

A.F.L. And C.I.O. Jurisdictional Dispute To Affect Five States
Soon Is Indication

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Pittsburgh's explosive beer "war," which is considered in labor circles as the opening battle in an all-out "showdown" struggle between the AFL and the CIO, today spread to five eastern states and threatened to expand nationwide.

The latest action was resolved late yesterday at a meeting in Pittsburgh of the business agents of the powerful AFL Teamsters International which currently is involved in an alarming jurisdictional dispute with the CIO United Brewery Workers.

At the meeting, to which import and significance was added by the attendance of Thomas E. Flynn, chief aide to Dan Tobin, Teamsters president and labor giant, the business agents passed a resolution recommending that a "strike" be called at the 63 breweries in Pennsylvania.

The "strike" was scheduled to begin on Saturday.

Shortly thereafter, the Pennsylvania Commercial Drivers' Conference called upon all Teamsters locals in New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia, and Maryland to take similar action against the breweries in their respective states.

The conference asked that the Teamsters stop hauling supplies to the breweries and also to refuse to carry CIO-made beer.

Lester M. Hunt, spokesman for the Teamsters, said the "walkout" in Pennsylvania was delayed until Saturday to give the state's three Teamsters' councils—in Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—time to endorse the business agents' drastic resolution.

Large Attendance At Presbyterial

Sharon And New Wilmington Districts Convene At Volant On Wednesday For Fall Meet

One of the finest crowds in a long time that have turned out for a Presbyterial meeting, met in the Volant Presbyterian church, for the fall meeting of the Sharon and New Wilmington districts, Wednesday, when sessions were held both morning and afternoon.

Miss Ruth Swanson, missionary teacher from the Philippines, who has been speaking in this area, was introduced as the speaker of the day, during the afternoon session. Miss Swanson very aptly told of conditions in the Philippines during the occupation of the Japanese army, and of the thrilling rescue of the Americans that were interned in the prison camps there.

Delegates to the sessions began registering at 9:30 a. m. with Mrs. William Drake, of Leesburg, opening the session at 10 o'clock. Mrs. A. B. Weisz of Volant had charge of the worship, followed by greetings by Mrs. Jasper Drake of Volant and a response by Miss Grace Anderson of Hopewell.

Reports of the officers, greetings by the president, Mrs. E. E. Moon, of Shippensburg, and the introduction of the speaker, concluded the morning hours.

Mrs. Paul Shields of Hopewell presided over the session at 1 o'clock, with Mrs. E. Weber Walker of West Middlesex, conducting devotions.

Mrs. C. M. Probst, of New Castle, reported on the National Convention after Miss Swanson told of her work.

At the conclusion of the report of the courtesy committee, Rev. A. B. Weisz of Volant, pronounced the benediction.

NOTED SPEAKERS WILL BE HEARD AT CONFERENCE

In addition to the business of the conference, the meeting of the mid-western section of the Pennsylvania State Education Association offers two outstanding speakers who in themselves should attract a crowded house.

At the morning session which opens at 9:30 Felix Moley, famous war correspondent, will address the conference. In the evening at 7:30, Col. M. Thomas Tschu, former secretary to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, and an authority on Chinese affairs, will be the speaker. Greener, the teachers' have opened these sessions to the public and the invitation will probably be largely accepted.

The sessions will be presided over by S. E. Slick, president of the mid-western section, with the Mercer County high school band furnishing special music in the morning session and the Clarion County Mixed Chorus in the evening.

Sectional meetings will be held later in the morning and all afternoon with the election of officers being elected at night.

Instructors for this phase of flight training are Stanley Farrell, Frances Masson, and Robert Stier.

Mr. and Mrs. Findley Wilson, operators of the air field, attended an all-day meeting in Butler Wednesday, along with other operators from all of Western Pennsylvania.

One of the subjects discussed was standardization of flight training for C.I.O.s, and the painting of air markers on the roofs of buildings in Pennsylvania cities.

Civil Aeronautics inspectors were present, as were representatives of the Pittsburgh Veterans Administration office.

More than 140 flags carried by Pennsylvania units in World War I are stored at Harrisburg.

Farm Products Vital Necessity In Making Autos

Over 1,000,000 Acres Employed To Raise Products Used In Manufacture

DETROIT, Oct. 24.—(INS)—At first glance it is difficult to connect the farmer and automobile production, but when you look under the hood it develops that the farm products are there—slightly camouflaged.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association has just turned up some interesting figures. And they reveal that the automotive industry can't get along without the farmer.

Although motor vehicles are complex mechanism in which metals are the major components, the non-metallic components are indispensable.

In a typical year, the automotive industry purchases at least 35 million dollars worth of farm products.

Million Acres

It is estimated that one million acres are being used by the American farmer to grow automobiles—or at least the material that becomes parts of automobiles.

A few examples:
The motor industry buys 65 per cent of all the leather consumed in the United States.

Also 10.5 per cent of the cotton. And 36.6 per cent of the nation's mohair.

That's just the beginning.
Seat padding for automobiles is made of cotton linters.

In constructing 2,665,171 vehicles, the industry used 24 million pounds of linters, putting $600,000 in the pocket of farmers.

Need Wool

Wool was needed for seat and side upholstery, so the industry sent the American farmer a check for 3 million dollars for 15,432,000 pounds.

Sugar cane has its part in auto production, too, as 590,000 tons were used for solvents, and the industry's bill was $1,534,000.

Soy beans are used for oil and plastics, such as instrument panel knobs, and steering wheels. A total of 680,000 bushels of these cost $654,000.

And when these supplies ran low, the industry encouraged farmers to grow tung nuts so the oil could be salvaged.

Even corn found its way into automobile plants. More than one million bushels supplied alcohol, paints and varnishes. The cost to the automobile manufacturers was a little over a half million dollars.

Half Million Dollars
Paints need flaxseed, too, and another $326,000 was paid for 174,000 bushels of this produce.

The paints also demanded turpentine, and approximately five million pounds of turpentine were purchased for $326,000.

But the farmer wasn't through selling to the manufacturers. They peddled 18,000 pounds of beeswax, fats and hair from 36,000 hogs; a half million bales of cotton, and the hides of 256,000 cattle.

Attempt To Keep Sweet Corn Sweet
AMHERST, Mass., Oct. 24.—(INS)—An experiment aimed at keeping sweet corn sweet is on trial in Western Massachusetts with residents of the area acting as the jury.

Undertaken by Massachusetts State College, A & P Food Stores and a group of Bay State farmers, the experiment utilizes crushed ice, fast transportation and time table marketing schedules to bring the corn from the field to the home with a fresh-off-the-stalk flavor.

The test corn is harvested three times a day to determine the best picking time, packed in crates with crushed ice, and rushed directly from farm to store. This method of direct delivery by-passes congested market terminals and cuts at least 12 hours from the time sweet corn is ordinarily in transit, Prof. Grant B. Snyder of Massachusetts State College and chairman of the experiment committee, pointed out.

By keeping the corn under refrigeration the experiment committee expects to demonstrate that higher quantities of sugar and vitamins are retained by the short season vegetable. Laboratory tests show, Prof. Snyder said, that 50 per cent of the sugar content of sweet corn is lost and converted to starch when the ears are exposed to temperatures of more than 75 degrees, while only nine per cent is lost at 32 degrees.

Advocates Long Jap Occupation

Former MacArthur Aide Says Japanese Need 25 To 50 Years
Of Tutoring

HARRISBURG.—(INS)—American occupation of Japan for at least a quarter of a century has been advocated by Cmdr. Guy J. Swope, of Harrisburg, former Chief of Legislative Activities for Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

A liaison officer with the Japanese Diet, Swope was heard with close surveillance of the first democratic political campaign and election in the land of the Rising Sun.

His observation of popular reaction to the sudden loosening of franchise rights has led him to believe the Japanese people must be tutored for from 25 to 50 years to grasp the full meaning of occidental Democracy.

Democratic Government
"The aim of establishing a democratic form of government in Japan can hardly be achieved unless the Japanese are in contact for a long time with the western type of democracy," Swope declared. "The Japanese have never had an understanding of true representative government as have the Anglo-Saxon peoples."

Divorce Judge Is Married 58 Years

Illinois Judge, Happily Married,
Has Signed Over 100,000
Divorce Papers

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Judge Joseph Sabath has been happily married for nearly 60 years despite the business he is in.

The judge is the dean of the divorce branch of the Cook county superior court. He has signed divorces for more than 100 thousand couples.

Judge Sabath feels the 5,000 reconciliations he has effected are more important to him than the divorces he has granted.

The reconciliation efforts make up his principal hobby or avocation. He has his chambers especially rigged up to aid him.

Such things as easy chairs, paintings on the walls, a fireplace with electric dryer and hearth log simulated to look like the real thing, photographs of his three children, on grandchildren and two great grandchildren abound in his chambers.

Gets Them Relaxed
He gets the warring husband and wife to sit down, then begins a running fire of cordial remarks. He offers them cigars, cigarettes, mints and similar goodies to get them relaxed.

During the years, five thousand such couples have left his chambers arm in arm, divorce papers thrown in the waste basket.

Among his recommendations for happy marriages are:
1. Have children, even if the couples must adopt them.
2. Own a home.
3. The husband should have a job and the wife should stay home.

The judge is 76, his wife 75. They recently celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary. How do they get along today? "Wonderful—just wonderful." He dries the dishes and his wife washes them.

Vegetable Crops Aided By Weather

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—As a result of favorable weather conditions, marketing of Pennsylvania vegetables attained good volume during the last half of September.

In some markets the demand was not sufficient to clear all local supplies received. The State Department of Agriculture announced today from Federal-State surveys.

Abundant rains and warm weather of late September served to add size to all late vegetable crops, especially beans, carrots, cabbage, spinach, celery, tomatoes and turnips, the survey revealed. Western Pennsylvania truck crop areas received little rain, however.

Beans are now moving to market in increasing volume. Districts of late carrots will get under way during late October and early November. There is a large potato crop growing in the Bucks-Philadelphia area this year and turnips are expected to be a fair crop.

Creamery Butter Output Increased

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—Although national creamery butter production declined seasonally—nearly 10 per cent in August compared with July—the amount manufactured in Pennsylvania jumped 52 per cent in August, the State Department of Agriculture announced as the result of Federal-State surveys.

The August percentage increase was greater than that of any other state and most states showed a drop, it was found.

August production of 1,310,000 pounds of creamery butter in Pennsylvania compares with 860,000 in July, and is exactly the same as the August 1945 output, the survey revealed. During the 5-year period, 1940 through 1944, August production averaged 1,328,000 pounds, or 1 per cent above August of this year.

Pennsylvania is drained by three important rivers, the Delaware, Susquehanna and the Ohio.

State-Wide Beer Strike Threatens Bar Worker's Jobs

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Jack Crane, president of the Philadelphia Retail Liquor Dealers Association, charged today that the jobs of 20,000 Philadelphia area bar-room employees are threatened by the state-wide beer strike.

Crane said he has appealed to mid-west breweries to increase their shipments to Philadelphia, in an effort to ease the shortage brought on by a jurisdictional dispute between AFL-drivers and CIO-brewery workers.

Ticket Problem At Westminster With Record Enrollment

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 24.—Westminster college's record enrollment of over 1300 students will require special ticket arrangements for basketball games and lecture and artist course numbers, according to college authorities.

The gymnasium has seating facilities for approximately 1250. Teachers and staff members number several hundred so at least 1600 seats will be required if everyone closely associated with the college desires to attend the same game. This makes no allowance for outside fans.

Method Of Solution

Students will be asked to indicate their intention of attending each game by turning in their activities ticket the day before the game and they will receive a basketball ticket. Faculty and staff members will also

'Kingsbury Run' Murders Recalled

CLEVELAND, Oct. 24.—INS.—The nude and dismembered body of a man was found by the Coast Guard today near the mouth of the Cuyahoga river.

The Cuyahoga county morgue reported that one of the man's legs had been cut off at the hip while the other leg was severed at the ankle. The body was believed to have been in the river but a short time.

The finding of the body recalled the "mad butcher of Kingsbury run" who terrorized Cleveland in the late 30's when a total of 12 dismembered bodies were found. The gruesome murders never were solved.

Few Suggestions For Christmas Day In Way Of Jewelry

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—INS.—There are just 34 more shopping days (in Christmas and if you've been thinking about what you might buy the little woman, here's a few suggestions given out today at a million dollar jewelry display in Pittsburgh.

You might buy eight diamond clips, consisting of baguette and round stones that may be worn as individual pieces in sets of two or four clips, or may be attached together in a stunning necklace. Nice? Sure. But did you know what the jeweler wants for this thing of beauty? . . . $32,000, just 32 grand.

Too much money. Well . . . how about a set of earrings that cost a mere $2,500. But before you complain, the jeweler says this piece of jewelry has the "new icy filigree look." How can you miss with a thing looking like that?

And if you haven't been stumped already by either the jewelry or the prices, it might be added there are a few other knick-knacks like wrist clips or a diamond spray bowknot ring for prices ranging anywhere from $3250 to $22,500.

Honoring those who died at sea while in the service of the U. S. Navy during the war, a special ceremony will be held October 27 "Navy Day".

Electric Range

PENNSYLVANIA

The man who coined the phrase "easy as pie" was a little confused. He should have said, "easy as baking a pie—with an Electric Range". But how could he anticipate science would be applied to cook stoves—and oven insulation and heat distribution would be a subject of research. Then, too, with electricity in the picture, the oven could be practically sealed against moisture (juice) losses . . . Yes, these advantages are yours with an ELECTRIC RANGE. It's as easy to use as switching on the light and as dependable as an electric clock—and as automatic as an electric refrigerator. Talk to your electric dealer about the new ELECTRIC RANGE.

Steel Foundries Operating At 90% Of Their Capacity

Output Still Below Demand And Will Not Satisfy Markets
Before Spring

NEW YORK—(INS)—America's Steel supply, which now represents roughly 90 per cent of the industry's total production capacity, still is appreciably below demand and probably will not satisfy the markets before next spring.

The weekly report of the United Business Service points out that while current tonnage equals or exceeds peacetime output in 1941, the inequity in the supply-demand ratio can be eased only by full capacity production in the steel industry.

Full-capacity operations, according to the bulletin, are handicapped by: (1) the acute scrap shortage, (2) scarcity of freight cars and (3) diversion of pig iron to heating and plumbing producers to expedite the housing program.

Scrap Shortage
The scrap shortage, to a degree, has been ameliorated by collection drives and increased activity in the scrap-producing industries. The shortage of freight cars is expected to ease considerably after the fall traffic peak. A new pig iron price of $20 per ton conceivably will activate output in that commodity.

The bulletin places much of the responsibility for current steel shortage on the finishing mills, which have fallen far short of the industry's requirements. There are, however, no prospects of immediate crisis. Effectuation of plans for speeding up the finishing processes will go far toward closing the gap between producer and market.

Picture Complicated
The steel picture further is complicated by tonnage prices, which manufacturers now protest are too low to counterbalance the rise in actual costs. The OPA, the report opines, will be opposed to any rise in steel prices because of the non-committal effect on prices of products made from steel.

Industrialists concede, too, that a general price rise inevitably would bring union demands for corresponding wage increases.

"Life With Father" Delights Large Crowd

Sometime, some one will get around to naming the all time, all American comedy and when the selection is made, our guess is that "Life With Father" will get a larger majority than a Republican in Maine.

"Life With Father" got to New Castle Wednesday night, October 22, through the sponsorship of the New Castle Lions club and some 2000 people forgot about strikes and atomic bombs for a couple of hours as they enjoyed this portrayal of the family life of the cynical Clarence Day. No psychiatrists, no complexes, no triangular affairs, just clean, breezy comedy, portrayed by a cast skilled in its work and very apparently liking its work.

Father Gets Baptized

While the play revolves around the life of the Day family, the object of the plot is to get "Father" baptized. Father is a rugged individualist, circa 1880, while Mother Day at times is much less than a mental giant, but somehow father's iron will melts down under the apparently artless maneuverings of mother.

Brandon Peters played the part of Clarence Day and Alice Thomson that of Mrs. Day. Both are experienced in the theatre and their work Wednesday night would certainly have pleased the late Clarence Day. It could be seen in it. Of course this pair of actors has an advantage over most teams that would play it, in private life they are Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Peters.

This article should be longer and more descriptive than it is but there's a shortage of paper, remember? We would like to tell you of the excellent work of Lee Sanders as Cousin Noah of Frances Helm as Mary Skinner, of Tom Hughes Sand and the three Frank brothers, Donald, Richard and David, as the Day sons, of David C. Jones as Dr. Humphreys and Henry Craig Neslo as Dr. Lloyd. The maid parts were well done with Eleanor de Vito, Helen F. Evans and Neville Westman each adding their part and Roberta Bellinger as Margaret.

Any time it is necessary to replace the New York company, the company playing New Castle last night could be shifted to Broadway and do a job. Perhaps it was the cast appreciated, perhaps it was the size and facilities of the Cathedral theatre which delighted the members and perhaps it was just old fashioned stagecraft, but whatever it was the cast was sparkling.

Congratulations To Lions

The Lions club did New Castle a cultural service in bringing "Life With Father" to the city. The net proceeds go to the work among the blind which the club has been doing for years, and as long as the club member select their attractions with as much success as they did this season, the fund will not lack. The New Castle crowd was the second largest in the history of this company. The largest was Troy, N. Y., which happens to be the home town of Brandon Peters, and the "local boy makes good" motif was responsible for much of it.

Not everybody saw "Life With Father" which seems too bad. But in your own case if you didn't see it last night, and haven't seen it in New York, don't worry, there's plenty of time. "Life With Father" will probably be a hit when a lot of current plays featuring smut will be one with the dust.

'Sawdust' Homes May Solve U. S. Housing Problem

Use Of Sawdust With Cement-Like Material Builds Homes At Cost Of $900

PLINT, Mich.—(INS)—The family man who is in search of shelter against winter may look to Flint for deliverance from his plight. A formula, which may solve a portion of the housing problem, reposes with Contractor Irvin Cumming who claims he can build a five-room home of durable quality for $900.

Cumming says that his formula has been put to work in California, Washington and Oregon and a Mexican delegation has investigated it with a view to applying it in a housing program for low-income groups in their country.

3 Part Sawdust

The formula calls for three-parts of sawdust to one-part of a cheap substance known as local mold. The result is a cement-like material which is poured between two strands of mesh wire serving as a mould.

It's fire-resistant, inherently insulated and durable, according to Cumming, and the cost of building a five-room house with the material is about $900 as compared with $6,000 for the same structure built of wood.

Furthermore, Cumming's formula—which he calls ply-plastic—reduces construction time for that five-room home from months to a single week, including installation of sinks and tubs, all of which are made of the safe substance.

Cumming has built a 12 by 24-foot garage of ply-plastic in one day at a total cost of $96. Sawdust for the primary mixture costs one dollar. The foundation was simply two strands of mesh wire strung about four poles and served as the "forms". Cumming poured the ply-plastic into the die then sat back and rested for 30 minutes. At the end of that time the material was dry and the walls of his garage were "built".

A 12-cubic-inch block of ply-plastic weighs 15 pounds. One block of the hardened material has withstood pressure of 3,800 pounds.

FAIL TO FIND A-BOMB SPY RING IN U.S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Rep Wood (D. Ga., chairman of the house committee on un-American activities, disclosed today that a year-long investigation has failed to reveal the existence of any atomic bomb spy ring in this country.

Wood termed persistent rumors that foreign agents were attempting to obtain the secrets of the atomic bomb "just a scare."

He added: "I don't think there is any spy ring. If there is, we haven't been able to find one. We haven't been able to put our finger on anyone who attempted to obtain the secrets of the atomic bomb."

Wood expressed the view, however, that "there have been attempts made to filch the methods of producing them," but admitted committee investigators have been unable to find any proof to substantiate this.

The committee's investigation centered largely around Oak Ridge, Tenn., site of one of the government's atomic bomb plants, where various scientists were questioned. Wood stated:

"I think some of the people were approached at Oak Ridge, but we have no positive evidence of this. The scientists we questioned expressed the view that there are no atomic bomb secrets and that they had the right to discuss the matter with anyone."

Paul's Widening Field Of Service

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

Paul and Barnabas at Lystra.

"Go ye into the world, and preach the gospel."—Mark 16:15.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Oct. 27 is Acts 13:1-14, 44-49; 14: 26-19-20; 1 Timothy 2:5-7, the Memory Verse being Mark 16:15. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel.")

When we study Paul's missionary journeys we must consider that these trips over vast territories were undertaken on foot. Not for Paul were our pleasant ways of travel, in buses, trains, motor cars and airplanes. Footsore and weary, he walked from place to place, often the object of abuse, beaten, stoned, spat upon. He climbed mountains, forded streams, took slow ships, endured dreadful storms, sometimes suffering from fever—all for the sake of Jesus, his Master, to whom he had pledged his life.

The start of his journeys was Antioch, at the extreme northern end of Syria. There were gathered several teachers of the early church, and Paul and Barnabas among them.

"As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them." After fasting and prayer, the others laid their hands on the two men, and sent them on their way.

Their first goal was Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. At Salamis they preached the word of God in the synagogues, and John was with them there. Next they went through the isle of Paphos, where they found a sorcerer and false prophet whose name was Barjesus or Elymas. The deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man, called Barnabas and Paul and desired to hear the word of God, but this sorcerer opposed them, trying to turn the deputy from the faith.

Paul, filled with the Holy Ghost, rebuked him sternly, calling him a "child of the devil," an "enemy of righteousness," and saying, "the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand."

John Leaves Them

From Paphos they went to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them and went to Jerusalem, thence to Antioch in Pisidia. Asia Minor, an entirely different town than Antioch in Syria and not to be confused with it. Here they went into the synagogues to preach.

The next Sabbath almost the whole city came to hear the word of God, which made the rulers of the synagogue jealous, and they kept interrupting Paul and Barnabas, contradicting and blaspheming. Then the two disciples "waxed bold" and told them that it had been their duty to tell the Jews about the Christ "but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us."

The Jews must have heard this statement with fury, but the Gentiles rejoiced greatly. "And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region."

In Iconium they again preached in the synagogue, but to both Jews and Gentiles, but the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles so that the multitude was divided, part for the disciples and part opposing them. They were threatened with assault and stoning, but fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, where they preached the gospel. Here they encountered a crippled man, who had never been able to walk. Paul noticed him and perceiving "that he had faith to be healed," he said in a loud voice, "Stand upon thy feet." And the man leaped and walked. When the people saw this they shouted, "The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men." They called Paul and Barnabas by the names of their gods and would have done sacrifice before them. The disciples were horrified and told them they were mere men like themselves.

Certain Jews then came upon the scene and persuaded the people to stone Paul, and they left him for dead. As his disciples stood around him, however, he rose up and entered the city, but next day he and Barnabas departed to Derbe.

Their further journeyings cannot be told here because of lack of space, but finally, after many successful missions, they returned to Antioch, in Syria, where they told all that they had done and what had happened to them, things both encouraging and disheartening.

Now our lesson takes us to Caesarea Philippi, where Paul was arrested and confined, although he enjoyed some freedom. The two verses assigned to us relate a most dramatic moment in Paul's life, when he defends himself before King Agrippa before being sent to Rome for trial as a Roman citizen.

"Whereupon, O King Agrippa," he says after relating his previous opposition to and persecution of the Christians and his vision of Christ, "I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision."

GOOD EQUIPMENT MAKES DISHWASHING EASIER

Dishwashing is a simple and pleasant task when equipment is suitable and conveniently located. If the sink has two compartments one of these may be used instead of a dishpan. This saves time and eliminates a dishpan. The other compartment may be used for rinsing the dishes.

A dish drainer is an important piece of equipment. One with a center rack that allows the dishes to stand almost upright is the best choice. The water will drain off readily and the dishes will dry quickly. Strong wires are necessary to prevent bending under the weight of the dishes, and if the wires are rubber covered they are easier on the dishes.

If the wire drainer cannot be put in the sink or on a board that has good drainage into the sink, a metal dish drainer is necessary. This drainer should have an opening on one side or one end for the water to drain out of it into the sink.

Some homemakers like water hotter than the hand can comfortably stand and use a dishmop that is free from lint and easy to handle. They find a flat mop is better than the perfectly round one. A dish mop requires the same care as a dishcloth: washing, rinsing, and hanging in sunshine or where there is good circulation of air after each dishwashing. This helps to keep it clean and fresh.

A crusade against trees in business districts took place in many American cities early in this century, and hundreds of huge maples, elms, and oaks were cut down and removed. Today, tree-planting projects are underway in many of those same cities.

To show prospective wives, who provide the food that they will be good, economical "housewives," Papuan men of New Guinea bind their waists tightly and never remove the binding.

Plan To Paint 'Air Markers' On Many Rooftops

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The state aeronautics commission announced today that "air markers" would be painted on the roofs of more than 700 strategically-located buildings within a year to aid private flyers.

Director William L. Anderson said the commission had contracted with G. K. Rhodes, of Boaring Springs, to paint an initial 200 markers and that five crews would begin work at the end of this week. The contract fixes the cost of each marker at $87.50.

"Next to airports, markers are the most important thing to personal flyers," Anderson said. "They are just as important to the man who relies as road signs are to the person who drives an automobile."

"It will take us until next fall to get the state completely air-marked," Anderson added. "But when the program is completed, Pennsylvania will be the most thoroughly air-marked state in the nation."

Anderson explained that the signs will contain the names of the communities, location in latitude and longitude, directions to the nearest airport and an arrow pointing north. He said there were 251 licensed airports in Pennsylvania.

Names of communities will be painted in 10-foot letters while the other information will be marked out in five-foot letters. The yellow-colored signs will be visible from 3,000 feet, Anderson added.

Police Ball Affairs Progress

C. C. Syling, secretary, local Fraternal Order of Police, stated today that plans for the Thanksgiving night Police Ball in the Cathedral are progressing. He said the public response has been splendid. Mr. Syling said that the charge this year is $2 per dance couple.

St. Paul's Church Raising $7,000 Fund

Report $6,000 Already Received In Pledges To Meet Mortgage
On Church

Rev. O. J. Warnath, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, reports that the church has received $6,000 in pledges toward the $7,000 mortgage on the church property.

Many of the members are still to be interviewed or the debt reduction fund, while others have taken pledge cards which have not yet been returned to the treasurer of the fund, Henry Snyder. Mr. Snyder reports that thus far $2,750 in cash has been paid into the fund. Payments toward the reduction of the debt are all to be completed by November of 1947.

It is hoped that within another two weeks that all members of St. Paul's congregation will have been seen, and the remaining $1,000 secured in pledges.

Michigan Draft Dodger Is Given Three-Year Term

DETROIT, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Lloyd Irving Chavis, a 33-year-old former Pontiac, Mich., athlete, was sentenced to three years in prison for dodging the draft since June 1941.

Chavis, who appeared launty and unworried at his arraignment earlier, was obviously nervous and remorseful as Federal Judge Theodore Levin pronounced sentence.

He told the jurist that he had nothing to say in extenuation of his act before sentence was pronounced. Chavis was arrested on September 30 at the home of an Ann Arbor, Mich., school teacher who, with Chavis' ex-wife, faces sentencing by Federal Judge Frank Picard next week on a charge of harboring and aiding a draft dodger. Both are free on $1,000 bond.

Men At Deshon Need Supplies

Local Veterans Posts Are Helping To Relieve Situation By Donations

When representatives of the Order of Cooties of the V. F. W. visited Deshon hospital Sunday, taking with them cigarettes and toilet articles, they found that the men undergoing treatment at the new VA hospital there are in dire need of these articles.

They have asked the assistance of the other veterans posts of the city in relieving the condition, and Perry S. Gaston post, American Legion, at the meeting last evening took steps to assist. Commander E. Gene Schweinsberg named a committee to help out in the matter.

This is a worthy project, that other organizations of the city can help out with, Commander George D. Christoph of the Neshannock post, V. F. W., announces, as no canteen service has yet been established at the hospital and the men undergoing treatment there are unable to buy these supplies at the hospital.

Bellhops Use Cars To Make Hotel Round

FONTANA, N. C. (INS)—The largest hotel in this part of the land today will accommodate only 1200 guests, but each guest has an average of an acre each to use.

The corridors total some five miles—paved and gravel—and the bellhops and chambermaids use automobiles to make their rounds.

That's Fontana village. It is a unique experiment in resorting being undertaken on Services, Inc.

The corporation leased a whole town from T. V. A. for 30 years. The town was turned into a modern vacation center near the shores of the gigantic Lake Fontana, created by the fourth highest dam in the world.

All the rooms are in cottages, cabins and trailers—and they rent from $30 a week to $84 a week, depending upon size and whether the occupant wants to keep house.

There are 100 completely equipped dwelling units opened—and they hope to have 400 in another year.

When you go to Fontana Village, all you have to take is your clothes—everything else is already there, including fully stocked trout streams.

TRACK HISTORY

LONDON.—(INS)—The standard gauge of railway tracks of four feet eight and a half inches which is common to British and American railways is an inheritance from the ruttings in old Roman roads which were copied centuries ago by British cart tracks. In turn they were adopted by the railways, says British Railways.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The cast, like Natalie Draper, for instance, who plays Lady Castle-maine.

Center of Attention

"No one seems to be paying any attention to what they wear, only what I wear."

"The other women can almost fall out of their clothes and no one seems to pay any attention."

Your reporter got Linda's own views by grabbing her for a quick luncheon just before she started the picture.

"Are the costumes as sexy as you were in 'Hangman's Square'?" your reporter asked, trying to get down to an exact point.

"Good heavens, no," Linda replied.

Sedate Gowns

"Or those numbers you wore in 'My Darling Clementine'?"

"Oh no," said Linda, "the Amber gowns are really sedate. They come all the way up to here."

Your reporter proceeded hopefully.

"Well, with all the love-making there is in that story, you'll have plenty of opportunity to reveal your sultry self."

"You think so," said Linda. "I've read the first 96 pages of the script and there's not much love in them."

But she made it very clear.

"I'm delighted to have the opportunity to play Amber because it is a great opportunity—so great, in fact, that it will make or break me as an actress."

Lurid Novel

Because of the luridness of Kathleen Winsor's novel, all of the Amber gowns have been designed by the top modists at 20th Century-Fox under strict orders to err on the side of extreme caution.

But, even that wasn't enough for Brother Breen. He directed that another man be added to the bustlines of all the gowns.

Said Linda, more generous than even with her new Amber hair:

"You can believe me when I say I'll be well covered up all through the picture."

"I think a lot of it is perfectly silly. They've set up one rule for Amber's clothes and an entirely different one for the other women in

NEW YORK.—(INS)—Dogs can help save millions of pounds of food this year. M. B. Allen, Western-Winchester hunting authority suggests that the eight million people who will secure hunting licenses take a dog with them when they go into the field. Although state game laws restrict the amount of game which an individual hunter can take million of wild fowl and other animals are lost by shooters who fail to use dogs to retrieve the game they shoot, Allen said.

If you called out of a plane flying at 40,000 feet, and opened your parachute immediately, it would take almost 25 minutes for you to reach the earth.

Assessor Will Resign PostEllwood Assessor Decides To Resign After Conference With CommissionersOTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Following a controversy between himself and the county commissioners on Wednesday, County Assessor Michael Sanders Cirelli of the first ward of Ellwood City and he would present his resignation as an assessor.

The controversy arose when Mr. Cirelli presented a bill for 56 days service as assessor at the prescribed rate of $8 per day. Under the rules of the commissioners this year the assessors were allowed 15 days to check new construction, check the demolition of old buildings and adjust occupational assessments. Any more time needed was to be by notification to the county commissioners and was to be reported within two weeks. Mr. Cirelli's bill goes back into August and is for days in September and October also.

The commissioners asked if Mr. Cirelli had put in full time reported. He said he had, but had been conducting his barbershop business also. The commissioners then suggested that he could not do the assessment work in daylight hours and conduct a barbershop also. To this Mr. Cirelli said he could not take the time ordinarily used by the assessor and that he would resign. The bill was held up, pending an investigation.

CONSTABLES ASK RAISE

A petition was presented to the county commissioners on Wednesday by the constables of the county asking that their compensation for election days be raised from $5 to $10. The matter was laid upon the table with the likelihood that it will remain there. The indications are that the commissioners will not raise the fee at this time.

Each election the constables of the various wards, townships and boroughs appoint deputies for each of the voting precincts. As a rule the constable has nothing more to do than be around the polls. The only time any work is necessary is when some voter gets obstreperous.

British Fatigue Laid To Red Tape Many Restrictions

Blamed For Feeling Of Strain In Britain

LONDON.—(INS).—Medical authorities in Britain list dull, unvaried food, queues, continued restrictions and red tape in every phase of life and the weather as the reasons for Britain's widespread "feeling of strain and fatigue".

Those affected most are the workers in the large towns and cities. There is no doubt that the people of Britain are tired. It is reflected in their work, in their appearance and their tempers. Heads of big industries particularly complain of the low per capita production of workers.

On Edge
The man in the street comments that "everyone seems ready to jump at the next man's throat over the most trivial things". Traditionally courteous, Britain's population is said to have evolved into a group of sarcastic back-biting, irritable people.

One doctor stated: "The food we are getting is good in quantity but far from adequate. People are wearing themselves out in queues and dealing with thousands of petty restrictions which should have been abolished months ago."

Another medical man insisted that "the chief cause of the tiredness is lack of fats and the abnormally bad weather, in addition to restrictions. Lack of fats is the most serious cause."

Simple Remedy
Doctors prescribe a most simple remedy. It is an increase in the fat ration and other foods and the abolition of restrictions.

Britain's working population, including housewives, would like to see the government do something about filling the prescription.

"Without a little help from the authorities," they say, it is impossible to get more fats, vary the diet, eliminate queues and bring added interest and variety to drab existence.

TEACHERS FETTERED

PORTLAND, Ore.—(INS).—Teachers in Portland really handed some Western hospitality to six school teachers brought from Boston. The first day in their new home the sextette were accorded an airplane ride over the city, a sightseeing tour up the Columbia river, and were snuggled under with calls for rides, dates, dinners and offers to club memberships. The teachers, no longer lonely, said they would have a hard time settling down to teaching school. The girls are Genevieve Keohane, Rita Fitzgerald, Marie Kelly, Eleanor Donovan, Dorothy Lynch and Virginia Houghton.

The term "express train" originally had no connection with how fast the train traveled. It meant a train running for some special purpose or engaged by a private person.

Chicago has more long-distance telephone calls than any other city in the world.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often
Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about a pint a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Seek Submerged Treasure Vessel On Lake Bottom

BAY CITY, Mich.—(INS).—Capt. William J. McNeil of Bay City is outfitting for a modern treasure salvaging expedition that may mean a quarter of a million dollars for himself and his backers. The treasure isn't pieces of eight or gold but copper—300 tons of it.

It is believed to be in the hold of a freighter which legend says went down during a storm in 1870. Julius Roth, 72, a retired grocer from Danbury, O., who lives along the lake shore near Tawas, Mich., heard the story of the ship's sinking four years ago from two old sailors. They said the vessel went down with the copper from Michigan mines.

In home kitchens pears may be kept covered with a damp cloth until ripe or in a paper bag with a wad of moistened paper to provide required moisture.

Blind Law Student Runs For Office

COLUMBUS, Mo.—(INS).—Earl Cox of Brookfield, Mo., lost his sight at the age of 17 in an automobile accident.

New at the age of 32 he is a law student at the University of Missouri in Columbia, and a candidate for the Missouri House of Representatives in the November general election.

Cox says his campaign for the Democratic nomination for state representative, which he won in the August Primary election, was run mostly by remote control. Two Brookfield attorneys took care of passing out circulars, and publicity of the campaign.

But, the speeches were made by Cox. His work in school forced him to virtually limit his campaigning to weekends.

His campaign promises? He said: "They were merely that I would do my best for the people of my district."

Cox, if elected, will be the first blind man ever to sit in the Missouri House, according to Harold D. Condray, chief clerk of the House.

France Levies 5% Property Tax

PARIS.—(INS).—An unprecedented tax-collecting scheme has just been concluded in France and as a result the treasury hopes to be a hundred billion francs (one million American dollars) richer.

Already taxed to the collar-burton for just about everything except fresh air, Frenchmen did not respond too enthusiastically to the idea. Treasury officials echo the private and collective sentiment that their brothers are holding back.

The tax in question, designed to help cover the extraordinary expenses of post-war France, was levied against all forms of wealth. Furniture, land, jewelry, cattle and clothing was assigned a monetary value.

Every householder was required to submit an estimate of his total wealth, adding an assessment of every stick of his property to the total of his cash holdings.

Expand Cancer Research Staff

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — (INS)—The Southern Research Institute implemented by its newly-formed biochemical division, is trying to find a treatment for cancer.

Dr. H. E. Skipper, director of the new division, says the cancer research is being carried out in cooperation with Memorial Hospital of New York City and the Medical College of Alabama.

The mysterious disease, leukemia also will be studied in an effort to discover a workable treatment in this usually fatal disease.

New Division. In addition the new biochemical division is carrying on research designed to improve certain drugs. The Institute began operations on April 1, 1945 with a technical staff of one. Today the staff numbers fifty and one million dollars of a projected two and a half million dollars has been raised to provide additional facilities, including new buildings.

Marcelo de Nisa, a Franciscan friar and the discoverer of the famed Seven Cities of Cibola in western Mexico, did not find seven cities but only six which are now reduced to but one—the Indian Pueblo called Zuni.

New Castle Awaits Invasion Of Clairton Bears Friday

Final Home Game Will Draw Crowd

Clairton Seeks Revenge For 27 To 7 Defeat Handed Them Last Season

NEW CASTLE AFTER FIFTH WIN OF YEAR

Hoping to gain their fifth victory of the season, and to break a two-to-zero deadlock in series games with the Clairton High Bears, the New Castle High "Red Hurricanes" will enter the final home game on the 1946 card Friday night at the local stadium, with determination. The kickoff slated for 8 o'clock will find the stands filled.

New Castle is also hoping for a clear crisp evening and "no more rain". Three games this year have been played under dripping skies, slowing down the offensive attack of the locals, with a light and fast backfield this year.

Clairton will be after revenge for the 27 to 7 setback handed them at their own ball field last year by the Phil Bridenbaughmen. For the two previous years Clairton held a "jinx" over New Castle, winning 12 to 0 and 6 to 0, but last year the locals applied the "heat". New Castle won back in 1934 33 to 0 in the first meeting of the two teams.

In the matter of points the New Castle team has the edge 60 to 25. Clairton will bring a line that averages 163 pounds and a backfield that averages 148.

Zarone at Fullback
Coach Phil Bridenbaugh said today that the only change in his backfield from last week will probably be Zarone at fullback instead of Paul Cuba, Jr., who injured his ankle in practice Tuesday. Gilmore or Ira Brown will start at the right-half slot, "Bridy" announced.

Depending on what kind of a game develops, it is possible that all of the 14 Seniors who will be playing their final home game will get in the game, except Stan Grybowski who is recovering from a broken leg. Bridenbaugh may give all the boys a chance to play once more at home.

Shy on Veterans
Clairton, will have but one man in the starting lineup that faced New Castle last year, DeMaio, a backfield man, while New Castle will have but two who started at Clairton—Tate and DiCola. Gone from the Clairton team is such stars as Lamendola, Sumpter and Haiserton.

Gone from the New Castle team of course are such stars as Buzzy Perella, Sammy Flora and Billy Wells in the backfield. Stewart, Reed and Hill on the line.

New Castle is going after its third Class AA win against two Class AA defeats—Altoona and Sharon, and is also looking ahead to next week when they must face a big tough Aliquippa team at Aliquippa.

Ed Grain Will Be Penn Captain
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Ed Grain, 230-pound tackle, will captain the University of Pennsylvania Saturday when it meets the Navy's grid squad at Franklin field.

Grain is a veteran of the air war in the Pacific. Injured while an army air cadet, he spent a year in a hospital and underwent eight spinal operations.

The Quakers staged a heavy practice yesterday, with the freshman squad running off navy plays.

Union Awaiting W.P.I.A.L. Decision On Game Protest

J. Arthur Turek, principal of Union Township high school, stated today that a letter has been sent to the decision board of the W.P.I.A.L. concerning the controversy over the eligibility of one of the Union football players.

Use of the player in the Union-Bessemer game brought a protest from Bessemer and launched the inquiry in the case.

"In fairness to clean sports," Mr. Turek said, "all pertinent facts concerning the case were clearly stated in the report to the league board and their decision in the matter is awaited."

Assuming the duties of supervising principal at the Union school late this fall, Mr. Turek said that he was unaware of the player's scholastic rating for the previous year. He further added that the student's grades for the year were above passing.

Authorities at the two schools, it is understood, have a mutual agreement to replay the game and have set a play-off date if the W.P.I.A.L. board rules that action be necessary.

Hickory Defeats Union High 27-6

Johnson Scores Three Touchdowns, Slater One, Travers Tallies For Union

Hickory Hornets from near Sharon, stung Union's eleven 27-6 Wednesday afternoon on the Scotland Lane field. Johnson, Hickory fullback, scored three touchdowns and two of the points after touchdowns. Travers, Union's star in yesterday's game, making Union's lone score.

For three quarters Hickory's mammoth Hornets knocked off yardage as they pleased, making 13 first down against none for Union. Also in those first three quarters the Hornets made 204 yards rushing against 19 for the Scotties.

Fumbles Costly
An inspired Scotty team bucked down in the final period and made a total of 50 yards rushing and 42 yards passing against 18 yards rushing for Hickory.

In the first quarter after an exchange of kicks, a short pass over the center of the line from Conti was intercepted by Woge. From there Hickory ran two plays and fumbled, with Conti recovering. On the first play Conti fumbled with the Hornets recovering. In three plays that included a 15 yard priority, Hickory scored with Johnson doing the honors, and hitting the line again for the extra point.

Johnson Again
Johnson scored again in the second quarter, going over from the two and Lacerishak catching a high pass from Blair for the extra point. Also in the second stanza, Lacerishak, center on the first play of the fourth quarter, bringing Hickory's total to 27 points as the extra point try was not good.

Travers Crashes Over
With McCullough's kick-off to Travers, who took the ball on his own 15 and returned it to the 30. Union became inspired. Long passes from Conti and a nice run by Travers carried the ball into enemy territory. Bogoin intercepted a pass from Conti, but immediately fumbled on the next play, with Rotuno recovering. Roberts picked up 13 yards. Conti passed to Pearce for 9. Radabaugh picked up 4 yards. Conti threw one to Travers for 7 yards and Travers carried the ball for 5. Union lost some ground on an attempt pass but got it back when Roberts caught another of Conti's passes for 11 yards.

Hickory gained the ball on downs, but Blair trying to kick out of danger, had his punt blocked by Kupiec and recovered by Pearce. Travers taking the ball on the three went over for Union's lone score. The game ended with Union again in possession of the ball and on their way to pay dirt.

Gaston Post To Have Floor Team

Strong Basketball Team Will Be Formed To Represent Post In District Competition

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, expects to have a strong basketball team in the field this winter to represent the post in district competition, it was announced by athletic chairman Earl C. Moffatt today.

Tom McCormick has been named as chairman of the basketball team, and will be assisted by "Bus" Spaulding. Any veteran desiring to join the team is asked to get in touch with these men, or with athletic chairman Moffatt.

Permission is being sought to use the George Washington Junior High floor on Saturday evenings, and on those evenings when the high school team is playing away from home.

There are a number of line players among the returned veterans who are anxious to affiliate with a fast team.

A league is being formed in Lawrence county, which will also play games with teams in Beaver and Butler counties, where leagues are being formed, and an active season is looked forward to.

Titans Will Play Geneva At Farrell

Also Card Grove City At Farrell Field, Play Waynesburg At New Wilmington

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 24.—Two of Westminster college's three remaining home football games will be played at the Farrell high school field, according to an announcement by athletic officials of the college.

Geneva will be played at Farrell, November 2, and Grove City will be met at the Steeler field November 16 in the final game of the year. The Waynesburg game, November 9, will be played at New Wilmington.

The Titans have played one home game already at Farrell, having met Juniata there October 5. The games were shifted due to the lack of adequate seating facilities on the home field.

Westminster travels to Bethany, W. Va., Saturday to meet the Bethany eleven.

Ellwood Host To Greenville

Penn High At Lincoln Field Friday Night; Wolverines Play Midland Nov. 11

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—Ellwood High's Wolverines step out of league competition for the first time this season Friday night when they meet Penn High of Greenville at Lincoln field.

The Croft men have won through five straight AA foes, winning two and losing three. They will welcome the respite from league battles to prep for the Beaver Falls encounter, which is scheduled for the valley grid Nov. 1.

Greensies Unimpressive
Penn High has experienced hard luck on the district grids this fall, the Mercer county eleven having yet to notch a victory. They have lost contests to Meadville 28-0, Fairport 6-0, Hubbard, O. 20-0, Grove City 13-6 and Hickory 13-0. Then best efforts were in the Farrell game and in tying Titusville 0-0. Their lone touchdown of the season came against Grove City.

The Wolves emerged from the Aliquippa defeat in good physical shape and hope to repeat over the visitors. Ellwood copped last year's game 24-0.

Add Midland To Card
As an added feature to the planned Armistice Day celebration in Ellwood, high school authorities announced today the scheduling of Midland High against the local eleven on that date.

The game will replace a cancelled Midland Hay with Fairport, W. Va. Ellwood had no game slated for that date.

Pirates Obtain Ernie Bonham In Trade With Yanks

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today obtained pitcher Ernie Bonham from the New York Yankees in exchange for pitcher Art Cuccurullo and another player to be named next spring.

The strange trade which switched the 33-year-old right-hander to the Bucs undoubtedly will cause a great deal of speculation in baseball circles.

For instance, fans will want to know why seven other American league clubs waived on a pitcher who won 79 games while losing only 50 in his six years with the Yanks.

Cuccurullo, who failed to make the big leagues in several attempts with the Pirates, labored last season in the Pacific Coast league, where he won 8 and lost 12 with Hollywood.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

PHEASANT and duck hunting in South Dakota was not as good this season as in 1945, according to Dr. Homer R. Allen, who with Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rick, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reiber, Dr. William Applegate, Mercer County and Clifford Kunkler, Ellwood City, hunted at Mitchell, S. D. Incidentally, Joe Rick received a couple of lead pellets in his left arm and one on his left cheek when a hunter, not in their party, got out of a car and blazed away at some birds. When the New Castle hunters shouted in alarm, the man leaped into his car and sped away. According to Dr. Allen, the party brought back about 130 birds. He said the farms are posted and each hunter must pay $1 to shoot on them. The daily limit is two hens and three cock birds. "It was tough hunting this year," he explained and added the "duck hunting was not good." He said there was a high wind and ducks flew too high. Frank Tamburini, local gunner, who, years ago, killed off many hawks, is kept so busy with other duties now he seldom has a chance to do away with hawks and crows. If men like Tamburini made a business of killing fox, there would be lots more small game hereabouts, in the opinion of those who know his ability. Union Township Athletic Association is now a live organization, having come into being Monday night. Dan Radabaugh, father of Ted Radabaugh, a halfback on Union high is president and C. Ed. Donnelly is vice president. John Crespy, one of the best known baseball men in Lawrence County is secretary and the membership campaign, now under way, is William Broad. Johnny Herzo who was affiliated with the Shenango Pottery baseball team is not in business at Highland Heights. He told here and there several nights ago his interest in baseball is as keen as ever. Fifty-four candidates have turned out for Westminster's 27-game floor schedule which will find the Lawrence County quintet playing City College in Madison Square Garden, The House that Tex Rickard built, December 14, and the Harvard Bulldogs at Pittsburgh, January 2. Their other clashes will be against tri-state teams.

Here and there received news of the passing of his friend, Jack Hulme. His memory will be cherished. Jim Dennis, another mutual friend, who was at State College, gave Jack a blood transfusion but efforts to save his life were futile.

Paori, Cangev, former lightweight, who could sock like nobody's business, reported today that Jack Biddle will be in the pink of condition for his eight-round return, bout Monday night with Garfield Thompson, Carnegie, who decided Biddle in a six-round October 14. Biddle did not train as he would have liked to, because of an injury to a hand sustained in a Youngstown bout. Art Kimmel, Altoona, who outpointed George Liggins, will take on Jesse Walker, Homewood, in the other eight-rounder. Joe Izro and Emil Cannel, local amateurs, will turn up in four rounders. In addition to these bouts there will be a six-rounder.

Russell Baxter who not only boxes himself but also tutors, is a much pleased middleweight, having handed Guy Elisco to a 57 seconds knockout of George Butonovich who boxed Bill Pozza here. Russ was further pleased when Pozza, his sparring partner, decided Johnny Watson in the same Aliquippa ring. He said today that both Frankie Moran and he will be in good shape for their Wednesday night bouts in Akron and both were willing to fight anybody at their weight, anywhere, at any time, providing terms were satisfactory.

JACK McCULLOUGH IS OPERATED ON
Jack McCullough star third baseman of the South Hills baseball team, is getting along nicely in the Jameson hospital following an appendicitis operation. It was reported by his mother, Mrs. Cecilia McCullough, 202 Dixon street, today. Jack is the son of the late "Sail" one of New Castle's finest ball players in the 20's.

Maine is closer to Africa than is Florida.

Purdue Hears Lee's Passes

Pitt Panthers Banking On Bobby Lee To Pass Purdue To Death Saturday

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—Up until last Saturday afternoon it looked as though the Pitt-Purdue game at the Pitt stadium this Saturday afternoon would have Pitt no worse than an even choice. But when the results of the day were posted and Purdue was credited with a 14-14 tie with Ohio State while Pitt had a narrow one-point win over Marquette, Purdue resumed its pre-season rating, well ahead of Pitt.

Coach Cecil Isbell, of Purdue, kept the eight ball all season, seems to have deserted the Boilermakers. After winning the first game against Miami, Purdue lost such stars as Bill Canfield, crack runner and best receiver in the Big Nine last fall, Bobby Pihl, sensational freshman back in 1944, Norman Maloney, veteran end. That hurt as Iowa and Illinois won, and then Bob DeMoss, great passer, missed the Notre Dame game, which helped the Irish run up a big score.

Lee Good Passer
But last week things picked up as DeMoss pitched for a touchdown against Ohio, and Pihl saw his first action since the first game.

With DeMoss pitching for the Boilermakers that Pitt pass defense will get itself another workout this week-end. The Panthers got their paws on five of Marquette's tosses last week, one of which was for a score, and thus raised their total for the season to 16.

The surprise return of Bobby Lee to the Pitt backfield, incidentally, boosted the Panthers' passing attack. Lee only completed three, but every pass he threw was on the target.

Catholic Welfare Conference Aided By Chest Funds

Objective Of Organization Is Set Forth: Much Welfare
Work Done

Every organization must justify its existence; this justification proceeds from two sources, the reason for its existence and its fidelity in discharging its obligations. The object of our organization, the Catholic Welfare Conference, is to maintain a county welfare agency for such matters as shall affect Catholics and persons of other creeds, or no creed, if and when they may require aid in their relations to courts, poor farms, relief agencies, juvenile delinquency, etc. The nature and scope of the welfare conference is the social, economic and spiritual welfare of families and child to be accomplished by an all-comprehensive system of case work, office consultation and inter-agency relations. The nature of family welfare is reduced to three general headings of relief, rehabilitation and certain problems which may affect either or both. Child welfare is concerned principally with the placement of children or the extending of protective care; regular and studied supervision is given in every case. Health concerns both families and children and is shown, therefore, in its relations to both. In line with this general plan the conference has handled a monthly case load of 15 cases during the past year. These cases concerned themselves with the placement of children in adoptive and boarding homes, and in institutions; these placements entailed regular supervision by our social worker. The broken home, too, presented its problem to the conference in a number of cases. Each case presented an individual problem which study of the case and the application of Christian social principles, to its need. The assistance of our other social agencies was of inestimable value. This assistance was always given readily and efficiently. The aged claimed their share of our efforts, also. It little has been said of relief to the poor, it is because such cases were handled by the parish St. Vincent de Paul society, which, if all figures were available could present a picture of need in this hour of plenty, which might arouse us from our indifference towards our fellow man and make us realize that we too have raised the question "Am I my brother's keeper?" Three thousand dollars is a conservative estimate of the relief work done by that society in the parishes of the county, a sum of money, raised through private contributions. The accomplishment of this work entailed a monthly mileage of 375 miles serving in the parishes of the county, a sum of money, raised through private contributions. The accomplishment of this work entailed a monthly mileage of 375 miles serving in the parishes of the county, a sum of money, raised through private contributions. The accomplishment of this work entailed a monthly mileage of 375 miles serving in the parishes of the county, a sum of money, raised through private contributions.

Community Chest, our financial burdens have been lightened and we now bespeak our unqualified interest in the success of the present effort to raise funds. May we ask you, in the name of the Poor of Jesus Christ to extend your unstinted charity to that effort realizing that the reward has been promised only for the exercise of that charity. The office of the conference is located at 602 Green building, New Castle. Mrs. William Howley occupies the position as full time social worker for the conference. The business of the conference is conducted by a board of directors composed of all the priests of Lawrence county and lay members, the latter elected annually. Over all is the executive committee composed of elected officers. The honorary president is the Most Reverend Hugh C. Boyle, D.D.,

Bishop of Pittsburgh. The director of the Lawrence County Welfare Conference is the Rev. Francis M. McCarter of St. Mary's church, New Castle. Rev. Robert D. A.
